MASTERPIECES OF ART.—GEO. M. SNOOK &amp; CO.

Masterpieces
OF Art!

That's What the New JACONAT DUCHESSE Are!

First two lots were snapped up before they had a chance to fairly settle down. New lots just unpacked larger than both previous ones, and shows marked improvement in designs.

The nature of this new material?

We'll try and tell you: Foundation is plain white India Linen, the delicately feathered, clouded and splashed ground colorings of which are enlivened with neat floral and geometrical designs in deepened self-colors. All absolutely unfadable even in such risky colors as Pink, Light Blue, Primrose and Pale Green.

Come also in set and broken single-colored stripes and black grounds with small colored figures. Price is 12 1/2c per yard for the genuine, but like all successful fabrics it has its less worthy imitators with misleading names of similar import. Select your summer dress from the largest line of Jaconat Duchesse. It is shown by

Wills Probated.

At Clerk Hook's office yesterday the last will of Margarette Youngbluth was submitted to probate and ordered to be recorded. The will of Catherine Mc-

Dermott was also admitted to probate and record, as was also the will of Mary

Bender.

A Chief of Police Weds.

Yesterday George S. Kidd, chief of police down at Sistersville, and a native of Clarksburg, aged forty-three, and Miss Kate Carrens, aged twenty-eight,

also of Sistersville, and a native of Penn-boro, W. Va., came to Wheeling, secured a marriage license at Clerk Hook's office, and were quietly married.

The Church Case Still on.

In Judge Campbell's court yesterday

the case of the city, sued for damages

by Mrs. Catharine Church, was still on trial, and occupied the entire day. The lawyers on the opposing sides seem to be trying to rival the circus as an entertainment. Half the time is consumed with funny spots at one another.

Sheep Killed by Dogs.

The other night dogs got into a field of J. D. Hastings, near Elm Grove, and killed six sheep and wounded twelve.

They had been washed, ready to shear.

They were appraised at $3 apiece. Only a few nights before dogs got into Harlan

Carter's field and killed six sheep and wounded six. The dogs were traced to their homes and killed.

The Prosecution Fails.

In the criminal court yesterday, Judge

Jordan on the bench, the demurrer to the indictment against L. K. Gillin was sustained. Mr. Gillin was one of those indicted for selling fertilizers without complying with the law which requires a statement of their chemical components to be furnished with them. The action yesterday ended the case.

Wheeling Elects.

Last night Wheeling Commandery

No. 1, Knights Templar, met and elected the following officers: Eminent commander, Charles Abrams; generalissimo, Peter Boyd; captain general,

Charles P. Wood; prelate, S. B. Warwick; treasurer, Allen Brock; recorder,

Joseph Hall; trustee, John W. Morris;

senior warden, Conrad Hirsch; junior warden, H. E. Bown; standard bearer,

Will Irwin; sword bearer, W. H. Manning; warder, Dr. H. B. Bagley; third guard, E. E. Baldwin; second guard,

S. B. Rose; first guard, George M. Ford;

sentinel, T. W. Ellis.

The Unlucky Thirteen.

A baker's dozen showed up in the police court yesterday. Andy Heltz was let go to return to the infirmary. Three disorderly men and two women on the same charge were fined $1 and costs

each. James F. Taylor was dismissed on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, as the pistol was not loaded and would not shoot anyhow. He and two girls were fined $2 and costs each for assembling for immoral purposes.

Puddin' Clark and John Larue, for being on the street after midnight, got thirty days each in default of $5 and costs.

All Right in Taylor.

Hon. S. H. Gramm, of Grafton, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. Gramm, who has represented Taylor county in the house of delegates for the two past terms of the legislature, and is now a candidate for the senate

from the Taylor-Preston-Monongalia

district, reports that the Republican outlook in his section of the state is very bright. Harmony and enthusiasm reign all along the line and there is a feeling everywhere that this is a Republican year in West Virginia. Mr. Gram-

m expressed the belief that the Republicans act wisely and choose a good candidate for Congress the Second district

can be carried this year and the author of the late lamented Wilson bill will be returned to the shades of private life.

Fine Organ Recital.

On Tuesday evening last a fine organ recital was given in Hamline church, at

Steubenville, by Mr. Horton Corbett,

Thursday's Races.

The ladies committee having the races in charge promise that the affair will be a most successful one. As it is the first out-door affair of the season unusual interest is being displayed, and the fact that many of the horses are new to Wheeling lovers of horseflesh, adds not a little interest. Music by the Opera House orchestra will be one of the features of the afternoon.

LOW AWNINGS.

Where the Law is More Stringent Than in Wheeling.

If the people who are kicking about the low awning ordinance here knew how ten times as many people have kicked for years for just such a law, they would say less on the subject. In all the cities there are similar ordinances, except that they are more severe on the property owner and more efficient for the protection of the pedestrian. For instance, the Columbus, O., ordinance, passed in 1872, reads as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Columbus, That no owner or occupant of any house, store or other building, shall erect or construct, or cause or permit to be erected or constructed, any awning, sign, sign-post, board, pole, or other device, structure or thing, in front of any such house, store, or other building, on any street in this city, that shall project over the sidewalk of such street more than eight feet from the wall of such house, store or other building; nor that shall be less than eight feet above the pavement of the sidewalk in front of such house, store or other building; and any person violating any of the provisions of this shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five, nor more than twenty dollars for each offense, and every twenty-four hours any such awning, sign, sign-post, board, pole or other device, structure or thing shall remain after due notice to remove the same, shall be considered an additional offense.

Provided, That no wooden awning or other roof shall be constructed over any sidewalk in the city, but all awnings shall be made of canvas or other like material and so constructed as to be rolled up to the wall when not in use.

The protests of the Wheeling kickers seem to be directed solely against the board of public works, which, however, is simply enforcing an ordinance of council. Over 200 awnings have been changed to comply with the new rule, and the improvement is notable and gratifying.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Imperial Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club will give a concert at Odd Fellows' Hall June 5.

STEPHEN McCLELLON announces himself as a candidate for school commissioner in Union district.

One of the new boilers at the city gas works was tested yesterday and found to be all right. New retorts are now being put in.

OFFICER SCALLY last night locked up Marion Baker, a plain drunk. John Donnelly, "No. 2," was put in on the same charge by Officer West.

ANNIE SCHAUSTRICK and Mary Lynch, young girls of this city, have been missing from home for several days, and their whereabouts are unknown.

The county commissioners' committee on court house and jail met yesterday, but only transacted routine business, the auditing of the monthly bills.

All the banks will be closed on Wednesday, May 30, Decoration Day. Persons having notes maturing on that day should give them attention to-day, Tuesday.

On Saturday, June 2, Auctioneer Haller will sell for John J. Jones, trustee, the old Ellis property, on the northeast corner of Market and Twenty-fourth streets. It was offered last Saturday and the sale postponed.

Yesterday's weather was cool enough to demand overcoats and make fires very comfortable things to have around. Very heavy showers fell in the early morning, but the day was clear and sunny after that. Frost was predicted for this morning.

The "This is it" fishing club was organized on the island last week. Elmer Teeters is president and Ed Bond secretary. The boys caught a nineteen-pound turtle yesterday at the head of the island. The club will go down the river in a week or ten days.

A lively fight took place yesterday about noon in a Main street store between the proprietor and a drummer in his employ. A dispute over accounts started, and the life was passed, followed by an exchange of blows. The drummer was pretty badly done up.

In Judge Campbell's court yesterday, in the case of W. D. Shallock, guardian of Harry L. Shallock, the estate of the infant was removed to Leavenworth, Kansas, at the costs of said estate. Judge Paul's court will not be in session until to-morrow, and probably no business will be done then.

The well known social organization, the Marcella Club, will give its annual outing at Wheeling Park, Tuesday evening, June 12, and it bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable of the out-of-door events of the summer. Killmeyer has been engaged to play. A special motor leaving the park at 2 a. m. has been engaged.

Colored Republicans are called to meet this evening at the Second ward market hall to organize and elect delegates to the convention of the State League of Republican clubs at Fairmont. All colored voters should be present and assist to send strong representative men of their race to that gathering.

GRAND Decoration Day picnic and dance at Seibert's Garden. Dancing from 2 o'clock to half past 10 o'clock. Music by Dimmy's orchestra. There will positively be no objectionable persons allowed to enter the grounds.

We will continue to make $3.00 cabinets for one dollar per dozen for one week longer.
